Alex Cora, Manager
c/o Boston Red Sox

Dear Mr. Alex Cora,

We salute your stand to promote human decency and human rights in Puerto Rico. The Samuel Lawrence Foundation applauds you not visiting D.C. given the ugly face of current politics.

We work to provide energy access to all people in the vital Commonwealth of Puerto Rico through powerful renewable energy leaders and thoughtful influencers to introduce sustainable energy practice for the island.

Perhaps you can make a time to discuss the plans.

Sincerely,

Bart Ziegler PhD, President
The Samuel Lawrence Foundation
